Numb. 6184.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 23. to Saturday July 27. 1723.

Whitehall, July 26.

TO the Intent that no Perſon may through Ignorance of the Law or Inadvertency omit complying with the Directions of the Act herein after ſet forth, and incur the Penalties thereby inflicted, it is thought proper to inſert the ſame at large in this Gazette; and all Perſons whatſoever, both Men and Women, in England, Scotland, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, reſpectively, being of the Age of 18 or upwards, and not having taken the Oaths therein mentioned before the First Day of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, are to take Notice that they are obliged to take the ſaid Oaths within the Time, and in ſome of the Courts preſcribed for that Purpoſe, at their Peril, without any Summons or Notice for their ſo doing, or in Default thereof to Regiſter their Names and real Eſtates in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Act requires, under the Penalty of forfeiting all ſuch real Eſtate as they, or any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for them, ſhall be ſeized of, or otherwiſe intereſted in, at the Time when they ought to have made ſuch Regiſter.

Anno Nono Georgii Regis.

An Act to oblige all Perſons, being Papiſts, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and all Perſons in Great Britain, refuſing or neglecting to take the Oaths appointed for the Security of His Majeſty's Perſon and Government, by ſeveral Acts herein mentioned, to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates.

WHereas ſince His Majeſty's Happy Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms, divers Rebellions, Inſurrections, and Traiterous Conſpiracies have been entred into, and carried on, for the Deſtruction of His Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, the overturning our Religious and Civil Rights, and for placing a Popiſh Pretender on the Throne: And whereas the Papiſts, and other Perſons, refuſing to take the Oaths appointed by Law to be taken to His Majeſty, have enjoyed, and do ſtill enjoy the Protection and Benefits of the Government, as well as the reſt of His Majeſty's Subjects, yet have been notoriouſly concerned in Contriving, Stirring up, and Supporting the ſaid Rebellions, Inſurrections, and Conſpiracies, by which it moſt manifeſtly appears, that they take themſelves to be obliged, by the Principles they profeſs, to be Enemies to His Majeſty and the preſent Happy Eſtabliſhment; and foraſmuch as it is highly reaſonable, that the Government ſhould be throughly acquainted with, and apprized of the Number, Names, and Real Eſtates of ſuch diſaffected Perſons, as aforeſaid, in order more effectually to prevent, diſappoint or puniſh the like Traiterous Attempts for the future, in ſuch Manner, as by the Wiſdom of Parliament ſhall hereafter be thought proper; Be it therefore Enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every Perſon and Perſons whatſoever, inhabiting in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, who ſhall be at the Age of Eighteen Years or upward, not having already taken the Oaths appointed to be taken in and by an Act made in the Firſt Year of His Majeſty's Reign, [Intituled, An Act for the further Security of His Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princeſs Sophia being Proteſtants, and for extinguiſhing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and ſecret Abettors;] and who ſhall neglect or refuſe to take the ſaid Oaths on or before the Twenty fifth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty three, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or at the General or Quarter-Seſſions for the County, City, Town, Liberty, or Diviſion, where ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall live or inhabit, all and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall neglect or refuſe to take the ſaid Oaths by the Time aforeſaid, ſhall, on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty four, Regiſter, or cauſe to be Regiſtred, their reſpective Names and Real Eſtates, in ſuch and the ſame Manner and Form, as Papiſts were obliged and directed to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates, in and by an Act paſſed in the Firſt Year of His Majeſty's Reign [Intituled, An Act to oblige Papiſts pists to Register their Names and Real Estates;] and also by another Act made and passed in the Third Year of His said Majesty's Reign, [Intituled, An Act for explaining an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, Intituled, An Act to oblige Papists to Register their Names and Real Estates, and for enlarging the Time for such Registring, and for securing Purchases made to the Protestants;] and the respective Officers, appointed by the said last mention Acts, passed in the First and Third Years of His Majesty's Reign, appointed and directed to take and receive the Registers of the Names and Real Estates of such Papists, are hereby authorized and required to take and receive the Register of the Names and Real Estates, which are by virtue of this Act appointed to be Registred, in such and the same Manner and Form, as by the said last mentioned Acts are prescribed in relation to Papists; and shall sign and return true Copies of the same into His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, on or before the Twenty ninth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four.

And it is hereby further Enacted, That every Article, Clause, and Thing, in the said last mentioned Acts contained, relating to the Registring of the Names and Real Estates of Papists, or to receiving or taking the said Registers, and the examining upon Oath, or otherwise, into the Truth and Reality of the same, shall extend and be construed to extend to all and every the Registers required and directed to be made and received, by and in pursuance of this Act, in as full and ample Manner, as if the same were herein again particularly recited and enacted.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Papist, or reputed Papist, or other Person or Persons professing the Popish Religion, and all and every other Person or Persons whatsoever, inhabiting in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, who shall be at the Age of Eighteen Years or upwards, not having already taken and subscribed the Oath of Allegiance, subscribed the Assurance, and taken and signed the Oath of Abjuration, as directed to be taken and subscribed by such Persons, who bear any Office under His Majesty, by the aforesaid Act made in the First Year of His Majesty's Reign [Intituled, An Act for the further Security of His Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princess Sophia being Protestants, and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and secret Abettors;] and who shall neglect or refuse to take and subscribe the said Oaths, and subscribe the said Assurance on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, before and in the Court of the Lords of Session, or the Court of Justiciary, or the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or before the Justices of the Peace at their Quarter-Sessions held for the County, Shire, Stewartry, City, Burgh, Town, or Liberty, where such Person or Persons shall live or inhabit, or before Sheriffs or Stewarts, or their Deputies, in open Court held for such Shire, Stewartry, City, or Borough respectivly, where such Person or Persons shall live or inhabit, as aforesaid, every such Papist, reputed Papist, or Person professing the Popish Religion, and all and every such other Person or Persons, who shall neglect or refuse to take and subscribe the said Oaths, and subscribe the said Assurance by the Time aforesaid, shall, on or before the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, Register, or cause to be Registred, their respective Names and real Estates in the Sheriff's Court, of such Shire or County wherein their Estates do respectively lie, in the same Manner and Form, as Papists in that Part of Great Britain called England were obliged and directed to Register their Names and Real Estates, in and by an Act passed in the First Year of His Majesty's Reign [Intituled, An Act to oblige Papists to Register their Names and Real Estates;] and also by another Act, made and passed in the Third Year of His Majesty's Reign [Intituled, An Act for explaining an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, Intituled, An Act to oblige Papists to Register their Names and Real Estates, and for enlarging the Time for such Registring, and for securing Purchases made by Protestants;] and the said respective Sheriffs, or Sheriffs Deputes, are hereby directed and required to take and receive such Registrations, as are hereby required to be made, and keep such Books, and make such Entries, as the Clerks of the Peace of the several Counties within that Part of Great Britain called England are, by virtue of the aforesaid Act of the First Year of His Majesty's Reign, [Intituled, An Act to oblige Papists to Register their Names and Real Estates] directed and required to keep and make; and shall sign and return true Copies of such Registrations into His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, on or before the Twenty fourth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Article, Clause and Thing, in the said last mentioned Act contained, relating to the receiving, taking and entring the Registers of the Names and Real Estates of Papists, and the examining upon Oath, or otherwise, into the Truth and Reality of the same, shall extend and be construed to extend to all and every the Registrations required and directed to be made and received in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, by and in pursuance of this Act, and to give the same Powers, Authorities, and Directions, to the said Sheriffs, or Sheriffs Deputes respectively, as by the said last mentioned Act are or were given to the Justices of the Peace in their open Quarter Sessions, and Clerks of the Peace of the several Counties in that Part of Great Britain called England, in as full and ample Manner, as if the same were herein again particularly recited and enacted.

And be it further Enacted, That in case any Person or Persons, who is or are hereby directed and required to take and subscribe the Oaths and Assurance respectively, as aforesaid, or for want thereof, to Register his, her, or their Names and Real Estates, shall not take and subscribe such Oaths and Assurance respectively, or Register, or cause to be Registred, their Names and Real Estates, in such Manner, as in this Act before is directed, within the respective Times herein before limited and appointed for the doing thereof, then, and in every such Case, the Person or Persons neglecting or refusing to take and subscribe such Oaths and Assurance respectively, or for want thereof, to make such Registry, as aforesaid, shall forfeit the Fee-Simple and Inheritance of, or such Estate and Interest in all such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments not Registred, whereof he, she, or they, or any Person or Persons in Trust for him, her, or them, was or were seized in Fee-Simple, or otherwise interested in at the Time of such Default, as aforesaid;

foreſaid; Two Third Parts thereof to the King, and the other Third Part thereof to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, being a Proteſtant or Proteſtants, who ſhall ſue for ſuch Forfeited Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, as ſhall lie in England, the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in any ſuch Court, and by ſuch Ways or Means, as are directed by the ſaid recited Act to oblige Papiſts to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates; and ſhall ſue in His Majeſty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for ſuch Forfeited Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, as ſhall lye in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any Perſon or Perſons now beyond the Seas, who by virtue of this Act ought to take and ſubſcribe the ſaid Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, or make ſuch Regiſtry, as aforeſaid, ſo as ſuch Perſon or Perſons do, within Six Months after his, her, or their Return into Great Britain, take or ſubſcribe the ſaid Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, or make ſuch Regiſtry, as aforeſaid, according to the Appointment of this Act.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, being Proteſtants, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, hath or have taken and ſubſcribed, or ſhall, within the reſpective Times by this Act limited, take and ſubſcribe the Oath appointed to be taken by Miniſters and Preachers in Scotland, by an Act of the Fifth Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign [Intituled, An Act for making more effectual the Laws appointing the Oaths for Security of the Government, to be taken by Miniſters and Preachers in Churches and Meeting-Houſes in Scotland] inſtead and in lieu of the Abjuration Oath, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be deemed and taken to have complied with the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, in as full and ample Manner, as if ſuch Perſon had taken the ſaid Oath of Abjuration, and ſhall not incur any of the Penalties or Forfeitures inflicted by this Act, or be obliged to Regiſter his, her, or their Names, or Real Eſtates; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And for the better Diſcovery of Papiſts and reputed Papiſts in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Papiſts, reputed Papiſts, and Perſons profeſſing the Popiſh Religion in Scotland, as aforeſaid, ſhall, at the time of taking and ſubſcribing the Oaths of Allegiance and Abjuration, and repeating and ſubſcribing the Aſſurance, as is herein before directed and required, make and ſubſcribe the Declaration called the Formula, as the ſame is recited in an Act of Parliament of Scotland, paſſed in the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred [Intituled, Act for preventing the Growth of Popery;] and in caſe ſuch Papiſt, or reputed Papiſt, ſhall neglect or refuſe to make and ſubſcribe the ſaid Formula, at ſuch Time and Times as are herein before directed, ſuch Papiſt, or reputed Papiſt, ſhall be obliged to Regiſter, or cauſe to be Regiſtred, his, her, or their Names and Real Eſtates, in Manner and Form, as is herein before directed, or for want thereof, ſhall be liable to and incur the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as are by this Act inflicted and enacted againſt ſuch Perſons as ſhall neglect or refuſe to take the ſeveral Oaths appointed by this Act to be taken, or in caſe of ſuch Refuſal, ſhall neglect to make, or cauſe to be made, ſuch Regiſter as aforeſaid; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And be it enacted, That for taking and ſubſcribing the Oaths and Aſſurance appointed by this Act, Three Pence ſhall be paid, and no more; and for any Certificate thereof, if required, One Shilling, and no more.

Gibraltar, May 14. The Spaniards are ſending great Stores for Ceuta, where they have a Garriſon at preſent of 13 Batallions, and it is ſaid they deſign to ſend thither more Troops in order to diſlodge the Moors, who have carried on their Intrenchments very near to their Works, but as yet we do not hear of the Motions of any Troops for that Service. Four Spaniſh Men of War paſſed by this Place about 14 Days ago, which are ſaid to be gone to Genoa.

Barcelona, July 18. The Marqueſs Mari, a Spaniſh Admiral, arrived here ſome Days ago from Cruizing on the Coaſt of Barbary, and ſailed from hence laſt Night in order to cruize on this Coaſt for ſome Days. till Stores of Ammunition can be got ready, of which he is to take in a large Quantity of all Sorts, with 2000 Soldiers, for Porto-Longone.

Liſbon, July 25, N. S. On the 20th Inſtant his Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Exeter, Captain Cockburn Commander, arrived in this Harbour from Goa, but laſt from Barbadoes. The ſame Day (the 20th) his Portugueze Majeſty and the Infantes his Brothers were entertained at a Bull-Feaſt. A ſecond is appointed the 27th Inſtant, which will be likewiſe honoured with the Royal Preſence; but the Queen does not appear at this Diverſion, becauſe ſhe is with Child. The Fleet from Pernambuco is daily expected.

Hanover, July 30. N.S. Mr. Scot, His Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary to the King of Pruſſia, arrived here Yeſterday Morning from Berlin. On Wedneſday Night there was a Ball at Heerenhauſen, at which His Majeſty, the Queen of Pruſſia, and a great Number of Perſons of Diſtinction were preſent. This Court will not go into Mourning for the Death of the Prince of Lorrain ſo ſoon as was expected, it being thought proper to put it off till the Queen of Pruſſia's Departure.

Truſtees-Office at the Exchequer, July 16, 1723.

The late Truſtees for circulating Exchequer Bills being making up their Accompts, and finding that four Exchequer Bills, viz. N°. 2687, 2688, 2689, 2702. dated the 7th of June 1720, for 100 l. each, are not yet brought in to be paid off and cancelled, according to the publick Notices that have many Times been given in Relation to Exchequer Bills bearing the ſame Date, notwithſtanding the Intereſt on them determined the 25*th of March* 1722; do hereby deſire the Perſon or Perſons poſſeſſed of the ſaid four Exchequer Bills, (which are all that are now ſtanding out and undiſcharged) to bring them ſpeedily to the Exchequer to be paid off and cancelled, ſo as the ſaid Truſtees Accompts to the Publick may not be ſtopt or delayed for want thereof.

The Letter dated from London the 22*d Inſtant July, directed for John Effington, Eſq; at Wandſworth, is come to Hand; if the Perſon that wrote the ſaid Letter will come or ſend to the ſaid Mr. Effington, or attend at the Petty Seſſions at Putney, on Monday the* 29*th Inſtant, and make good his Allegations, the Perſons accuſed, ſhall be proceeded againſt according to Law.*
